

STATE ELECTION RETURNS.

The returns from the several counties in Nevada of the votes polled at the November election show that the Weaver electors received an average of 7,260 votes each, the Harrison electors an average of 2,800; the Cleveland electors an average of 704; and the Bidwell electors an average of 84 votes. This gives the Weaver electors a plurality of 4,465, and a clear majority over all of 3,775.

For Congressmen Francis G. Newlands, Silver party candidate, received 7,153 votes; William Woodburn, Republican, received 2,295 votes; J. C. Hagerman, Democrat, received 552 votes; and C. H. Gardner, Prohibitionist, received 86 votes, giving Newlands a plurality of 4,858, and a majority over all of 4,420.

For Supreme Judge C. H. Belknap received 7,482 votes and was elected without opposition.

For Regents of the State University, short term, Kinkaid, Republican received 2,683 votes; Douglass, Democrat, received 786 votes, and Mack, Silver party, 5,865 votes, giving Mack a plurality of 3,182 and a majority over all of 2,396.

For University Regent, long term, Rule, Republican, received 2,700 votes; Lemmon, Democrat, 714 votes, and Fish, Silver party, 6,031 votes, giving Fish a plurality of 3,331, and a majority over all of 2,617.

Commenting on this the Journal says:

These majorities are unprecedented in the history of Nevada. The people had made up their minds that they had been duped long enough by the old parties and resolved to rebuke their leaders as severely as they could at the ballot box. Almost everybody who had affiliated with the Democratic party and two-thirds of those who had been Republicans joined the popular party and left only the machine element of the old parties, and those whom that element could control, to maintain the organizations. Never since the breaking out of the war was there such a political revolution in a State as that which occurred in Nevada in 1892. The best elements of the old parties, those who place principle above spoils, united and created a political cyclone which swept the State from the Owyhee to the Colorado and from the Sierra Nevada to Mormondom, electing almost every candidate from Congressmen to Constable.

Here, Too.

The Republican State Central Committee should pay the money they owe people of Wadsworth who cannot afford to lose it. We note the Secretary, Wm. Hy Deane, is in San Francisco; perhaps this explains the delay.—Wadsworth Dispatch.

The Republican State Central Committee should pay the Reno Gazette the bill which it contracted of its motion and without solicitation from any one connected with this paper. Repeated communications addressed to Wm. Hy Deane meet with no response, and unless some explanation is made somebody is going to hear from somebody else, and that p. d. q.—Reno Gazette.

The Republicans seem to be adopting the tactics of the Democrats. Two years ago the Democratic State Central Committee and most of the candidates for State office agreed to pay a stipulated price for certain advertising and job printing. The work was done faithfully, but the debt is unpaid, yet the members of that committee claim to be gentlemen, and several of them are said to be aspirants for office under President Cleveland.—Journal.

The APPEAL has a claim on the committee of $100 for advertising but will be glad to sell it for $25. The bill was not even sent as the publisher of the APPEAL thought it a waste of time to bother with it.

The journalistic graveyard in San Jose has received another addition, the Phoenix, of J. J. Owen, having joined the silent majority. For some time there have been more daily papers in the Garden City than in San Francisco, and it was to be expected that a number of them would die from inanition. San Jose is a good two-paper town, and more than that there is no excuse for existence.

Senator Stewart whooped things up in Denver last week with a solid silver speech.
